

PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

- Be a good sports man. Applaud good play by your team and the opposition.
- Play within the rules of the game.
- Play for fun and enjoyment, not just to please parents or coaches.
- Do not conceal an injury. Tell your coach if you have an injury.
- Control your temper. The Team does not tolerate violent or abusive behaviour by its players.
- Be on time for all team deadlines. Lateness may cost you a place in the team line-up.
- Treat all players with respect. We does not tolerate bullying or taking advantage of other player.
- Encourage and support your team-mates. Co-operate with your coach.
- Concentrate on the game your coach has asked you to play. Express yourself in that role.
- Work hard for yourself and your team.
- Respect the officials and accept all decisions without question

TEAM RULES

- 1) Players must abide by the Players Code of Conduct (see above). Players who choose not to do so risk expulsion from the team
- 2) Training is compulsory for all players. Players who do not attend regularly will not be selected for team games and risk losing their place in the team. Players who lose their place in the team as a result of poor attendance may reapply for a place in the team provided there is a satisfactory explanation for poor attendance and appropriate assurances in respect of future attendance.
- 3) Players who are unable to attend team training sessions or games must inform their Coach or the Academy Director or Administrator as soon as possible. Failure to do so will mean the absence will be recorded as non-attendance for the purposes of assessing the attendance record of the player.
- 4) A player who is expelled or loses his place in the Team through poor attendance shall not be entitled to a refund of subscriptions paid.
- 5) The Team takes precedence over other extracurricular activities or club football. Failure to attend team coaching session or games because of the above-mentioned commitments is not an acceptable excuse. Players may play school or junior club football provided it does not conflict with team training sessions or games.
- 6) Parents must abide by the Parents Code of Conduct (see below).Parents who choose not to do so risk the expulsion of their child from the team.
- 7) Verbal or physical abuse by a player or parent is likely to lead to immediate expulsion of the player from the team.
- 8) Players must notify Coach or the Academy Director or Administrator of approaches from or trials for other Development Center's, Center's of Excellence or other Academies.
- 9) Players must inform Coach or the Academy Director or Administrator of any approach or contact with the player or parents of the player by professional clubs.
